

Portugal and the rule of law crisis in europe: next steps? Part II

Workshop organized by ICJP/CIDP

PROJETO TRIIAL – TRUST, INDEPENDENCE, IMPARTIALITY, ACCOUNTABILITY OF JUDGES AND ARBITRATORS
SAFEGUARDING THE RULE OF LAW UNDER THE EU CHARTER

This project is funded by the European Union's Justice Programme (2014-2020), under G.A no. 853832

13 MAY 2022

LAW SCHOOL, UNIVERSITY OF LISBON

PROGRAM

Thursday, 25 March 2021

- 09.00 Opening session
Tiago Fidalgo de Freitas | CIDP, TRIIAL project
- 09.05 Follow-up and preliminary findings
Rita Gíão Hanek | CIDP, TRIIAL project
- 09.15 Keynote address
Carolyn Hammer | OSCE, Rule of Law Advisor
- 09.30 Coffee Break
- 09.45 A constructive, future-oriented approach to rule of law challenges: the role of lawyers, prosecutors, judges and policy makers (in Portuguese)
Roundtable:
Pedro Delgado Alves | Member of Parliament
Teresa Violante | Friedrich-Alexander-Universität Erlangen-Nürnberg, Researcher
Vânia Costa Ramos | Centre for Criminal Law and Criminal Sciences, Researcher;
and Carlos Pinto de Abreu e Associados, Lawyer
Moderador: Tiago Fidalgo de Freitas | CIDP, TRIIAL project

11.15

The Judiciary at the center of freedom of expression rule of law challenges (in English)

Roundtable:

Federica Casarosa | European University Institute – TRIIAL lead partner

Mohor Fajdiga | University of Liubjana – TRIIAL project partner

Jaroslav Gwizdak | Institute for Law and Society (INPRIS) – TRIIAL project partner

Raluca Bercea | University of Timisoara – TRIIAL project partner [tbc]

Moderator: Rita Gão Hanek | CIDP, TRIIAL project

12.45

Lunch